

HISTORY

What can you find out about the history or story of the church? Is there a guide book? Can you find anything about people who have lived in the area or worshipped in this church? Write a story about someone who might have come to this church in the past.

See how many different centuries you can find mentioned in the church in windows, carvings etc. How many different kinds of architecture are there that tell you about the story of the church?