

PILGRIMAGE

Imagine you are a pilgrim who has travelled miles to this holy place. Walk around. What are your impressions? What will you remember?

Would anything here make you feel that you wanted to pray, to be quiet, or sing, or come back again?

Why do you think pilgrims travelled great distances to special "Holy Places" such as churches or cathedrals? Is there anywhere or anything that you would travel a long way to see?