"In an affluent society like ours materialism can be an obstacle to an encounter with the living God. It is a subtle influence, which can all too easily focus the attention on the blessings of this life, which God promises now in this time, at the expense of the eternal life, which he promises in the age to come.
People today need to be reminded of the ultimate purpose of their lives. We all need to recognize that implanted within us is a deep thirst for God."

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands, the moon and the stars which you arranged, what is man that you should keep him in mind, mortal man that you care for him?

Yet you have made him little less than a god;
with glory and honour you crowned him,
gave him power over the works of your hands, put all things under his feet.

All of them, sheep and cattle, yes, even the savage beasts, birds of the air, and fish that make their way through the waters
