Psalm 137:

By the streams of Babylon we sat and wept when we remembered Zion.

On the aspens of that land we hung up our harps.

Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

For there our captors asked of us the lyrics of our songs, And our despoilers urged us to be joyous:

"Sing for us the songs of Zion!"

Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

How could we sing a song of the LORD in a foreign land? If I forget you, Jerusalem, may my right hand be forgotten!

Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

May my tongue cleave to my palate if I remember you not, If I place not Jerusalem ahead of my joy.

Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!

“Through his presence in the consecrated bread and wine God no longer simply stands before us as the One who is totally Other. He is within us, and we are in Him. His dynamic enters into us and then seeks to spread outwards to others until it fills the world, so that His love can truly become the foremost measure of the world”
