"The Church which is born at Pentecost is not primarily a particular Community - the Church of Jerusalem - but the universal Church, which speaks the languages of all peoples. From the outset the Church speaks in all languages, because the Gospel entrusted to her is destined for all peoples, according to the will and command of the Risen Christ.

From there other communities were to be born in every part of the world, particular Churches which are all and always expressions of the one and only Church of Christ. The Church is not a federation of Churches but any church community draws its existence from the one Spirit and the one Church"
